

DOUGLAS CABIN
Chewelsh, Stevens County, Washington.

HABS No. Wash.-26

HABS
WASH
33-CHEW
1-

PHOTOGRAPHS
WRITTEN HISTORICAL AND DESCRIPTIVE DATA
District of Washington

Historic American Buildinge Survey
Louis Baeder, District Officer
1615 Smith Tower, Seattle, Washington

HABS
WASH
33- CHEW.
1-

DOUGLAS CABIN

Chewelah, Stevens County, Washington.

OWNER:— Mr. DeVoe

DATE OF ERECTION:— Uncertain

BUILDER:— Douglas

PRESENT CONDITION:— The cabin is in a fair state of preservation.

NUMBER OF STORIES:— One story.

MATERIALS OF CONSTRUCTION:— Walls are of partly squared logs with upper part of shake shingles on rough sawn random widths lumber. Roof pitched and covered with shake shingles. Fireplace and chimney, said to have been included, are now gone.

OTHER EXISTING RECORDS:— The cabin was built by (R. H.) Douglas. The DeVoe's, present owners, intend to keep it for its historic interest.

Historic data obtained from Mrs. Brown, of Chewelah, Washington, who was born not far from there, sixty-six years ago, and Mr. Tom Graham, of Colville.

MEASURED AND DRAWN:— September and October, 1936.

Author: _____

Louis Baker
District Officer, WPA.

-10 4/18/57